

GMR LIFE FAQ

What is GMR Life?

Global Medical Response (GMR) believes that a culture of wellness must be engrained in an organization's soul. GMR believes that wellness is a critical component of the employee experience and, as a company, is committed to providing the best resources to help, not only our employees, but everyone who is focused on the wellness of others.

GMR Life is the internal division of Global Medical Response that exists to promote, support, and encourage wellness for all employees of GMR and to maximize overall wellness, including physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and social. GMR Life is also critically involved in the creation and dissemination of training opportunities to promote Wellness.

303.927.8130

Rhonda Kelly started her career in emergency response in 1996, spending the next 21 years working in career and volunteer roles in EMS, Fire and Nursing. During her career, she also served as the Health & Safety Officer for a metropolitan fire department, developing physical fitness, nutrition, wellness, injury prevention, crisis response and mental wellness programs.

In 2016, she founded ResponderStrong, the mental health initiative of All Clear Foundation. In 2020 Rhonda became the Director of GMR Life. In November of 2020, she was also named the Executive Director of the All Clear Foundation which transitioned into its research partner NDRI Ventures in December 2023.

Shad Thomas, LCSW

GMR Manager Clinical Mental Health

Shad.Thomas@gmr.net

971.260.7449

Shad has been described as “not your typical social worker”. After serving seven years in the US Army as an infantryman Shad started his career in clinical social work by attending the University of Southern California and receiving his Master of Social Work. For the last decade, Shad has worked in community behavioral health in rural communities providing mental health, substance abuse, and crisis treatment to adults, veterans and families. In his career, Shad has worked extensively in crisis response as part of a team including first responders and emergency department providers. For the past 3 years, he developed rural residential substance use and mental health treatment programs, medication assisted treatment, medical detox, and peer support programs. His personal experience with combat trauma and military humanitarian missions provides a foundation to support individuals and families who struggle with the stigma associated with mental health, and the effects of working in a high demand, and sometimes traumatic career field.

Sean Castle, A&P/IA

GMR Life Manager

720.210.0979

Starting in the fire service as a volunteer in 1992, Sean continued in fire/EMS until joining the US Army in 1998, operating as a UH-60A/L Crew Chief in a MedEvac unit in Germany. After his time in the US Army, Sean returned to volunteer work in fire/EMS as FF/EMT-Intermediate until 2012, when he returned to aviation maintenance in the civilian sector. Finding a calling in the helicopter EMS industry, he spent a decade with REACH/GMR supporting the mission to provide critical care to local communities. In 2022, Sean became one of two GMR Life Peer Support Providers specializing in maintenance personnel support, after seeing a need to help AMTs work through trauma associated with sentinel aircraft incidents. His personal experience in EMS and aircraft maintenance has provided a foundation to support individuals within the air medical community who struggle with the stigmas associated with mental health and effects of traumatic events, in a high stress, and highly regulated career field.

Jesse Baker

GMR Life – Therapy Dog Team Program Manager

Jesse.Baker@gmr.net

719.367.6282

Jesse joined the GMR Life team in November 2021, bringing with him decades of prehospital emergency response experience, serving various communities as a Firefighter/EMT, Paramedic, TEMS Medic and a brief stint as a Deputy Coroner. Since starting his career in 1994, Jesse has provided the best prehospital clinical care possible, consistently striving to better himself, as well as those coming into the profession. After moving into a Leadership role, he focused on caring for his employees. Providing a diverse, equitable, inclusive, and safe work environment for his employees was paramount to his core values. To facilitate those core values, and in conjunction with the rest of his leadership team, he successfully implemented a Peer Support program and introduced the GMR Therapy Dog Program to his operation. Jesse’s passion for employee wellness, and the Therapy Dog Program led him to his current position as the GMR Therapy Dog Team Program Manager with Therapy Dog, Dex, ever at his side.

GMR Therapy Dog Team

The GMR Therapy Dog Team was founded in 2016 and has been providing support and comfort to our teams at GMR. The Therapy Dog Team is comprised of standard-size hypoallergenic 'doodle' breeds that are specially trained to work with emergency responders. GMR Therapy Dogs are raised and trained working within an operation and are integrated members of our teams. Therapy Dogs start their training as a puppy and work closely with handlers to meet milestones for obedience and service animal training.

Currently, the team is comprised of over 40 Certified and 'In-Training' Therapy Dogs located across the country serving all GMR Solutions and departments.

For more information, visit the team page at www.facebook.com/GMRTherapyDogs.

How can GMR Life help my Operation(s)?

The team at GMR Life is responsive to wellness needs across the company. Our team engages with personnel and leaders to create wellness solutions at the individual and organizational level. From recruitment through retirement, GMR Life provides solutions to create, maintain and strengthen wellness.
